

Community College Innovation Challenge Boot Camp Participation Terms & Conditions

The Community College Innovation Challenge (CCIC) Boot Camp will be held at the Hilton Arlington, 950 N Stafford Street in Arlington, VA, from June 13-16, 2022, organized and led by AACC with funding from the National Science Foundation.

I understand and agree that I will be voluntarily participating in this Boot Camp at my own risk. I represent, understand, and agree as follows:

I agree not to participate in the Boot Camp if either I or anyone in my household has on the day the Boot Camp begins, a current COVID-19 infection, or has had such an infection within 10 days of the Boot Camp commencement date.

I understand that I am personally responsible at all times for my own health and safety.

I understand that I will follow all AACC required COVID protocols.

I understand and acknowledge that by participating in the Boot Camp—whether as a finalist team member, judge, presenter, instructor, vendor, or staff—that I am discharging AACC from any liability or claim that I or my family may have against AACC or its officers, director, employees, agents, volunteers or otherwise, with respect to any bodily injury, personal injury, illness, death or property damage that may result from my participation.

I also understand that AACC does not assume any responsibility for or obligation to provide financial assistance or other assistance, including but not limited to medical, health, or disability insurance, in the event of injury or illness.

I hereby waive, release, forever discharge and hold harmless AACC and its successors and assigns, from any and all liability, claims, and demands of whatever kind or nature, either in law or in equity, which arise or may hereafter arise from my participation in the 2022 Community College Innovation Challenge (CCIC) Boot Camp.
